

Abbreviated Summary of product characteristics<sup>1</sup>

SmartDose®, sodium chloride, 0.9%, solution for infusion

Qualitative and Quantitative Composition:

100 ml contain: 0,9 g sodium chloride

Therapeutic Indications:

Vehicle for intravenous administration of dissolved active medicinal products.

Contraindications:

Use in neonates

High-risk infusions.

Corresponding to the contraindications of the dissolved active medicinal products.

Hypernatremia, hyperchloremia.

Special warnings and precautions for use:

Please refer to the published complete Summary of Product Characteristics.

Interaction with other medicinal products and other forms of interaction:

Please refer to the published complete Summary of Product Characteristics.

Undesirable effects:

Please refer to the published complete Summary of Product Characteristics.

Pharmacodynamic properties:

ATC-Code: V07AB

The isotonic saline solution contained in SmartDose serves as a medium for the solution or dilution of medicinal substances for intravenous infusion.

The admixture can be infused at rates of 50, 100 or 200 ml/h, resulting in infusion of 2 hours, 1 hour and ½ hour respectively.

List of excipients:

Water for injection.

Dispensary and Prescription requirements:

Dispensary and prescription obligatory.

Marketing authorization holder:

PRO-MED AG, Wiener Strasse 131, 4020 Linz, Austria

Date of revision of the text:

November 2002

For further details please refer to the Summary of product characteristics or to Drug Dictionary.

<sup>1</sup>based on Austrian statutory requirements