

Manufacturing Engineer

Organizational details:

Superior: Head of Manufacturing

General aim of the position:

The aim of the position is the assistance of the Manufacturing Manager (e.g. maintenance of project plans)

General Responsibilities:

Maintenance and calibration responsibility for our production site in Wien
Assist the continuous improvement process in co-operation with QC and development
Technical assistance to our sub-contract-manufacturers

Specific Responsibilities:

- Assist Manufacturing Manager in implementation of new products / new manufacturing processes
- Establish equipment-specifications, contacts with suppliers, acceptance tests, documentation of trial runs and qualifications
- Accompany the development process of new product in regards of manufacturing process
- Organizing and documentation of pilot lot manufacturing

Education and Training¹:

Required Experience:

- Technical understanding and the ability to improvise (m)
- Hands on regarding maintenance and troubleshooting (m)
- Ideally a few years experience in a company with serial production and an ISO 9000 qualification (s).
- Good communication skills in English and German (m)
- At best, experience in the field of medical devices, pharmaceuticals, automotive or electronics (s).

Education:

The candidate should have finished a specialized school in mechanical engineering, mechatronic or plastic technology.
Ideally would be skills in the programs MS-Project and Auto-CAD.